

PURCHASING TERMS AND CONDITIONS

GENERAL

“Agreement” means, collectively, these terms and conditions and the Order to which they apply.

“CSL” means the CSL entity identified on the Order which shall be either The CSL Group Inc. or any of its affiliated companies.

“Order” means a purchase order and, if applicable, change order, duly issued by an authorized representative of CSL to the Supplier for the purchase of goods and and/or services.

“Supplier” means the supplier of goods and/or services identified on an Order.

These terms and conditions are applicable to the Order to which they are attached or to which they are otherwise incorporated by reference. In the event of a conflict between these terms and conditions and the terms set out in the Order, these terms and conditions will prevail.

If goods and/or services authorized by the Order explicitly incorporate special terms and conditions under a separate contract signed by authorized personnel of CSL (an “Incorporated Contract”), both this Agreement and that Incorporated Contract shall govern the legal relationship between CSL and the Supplier with respect to those goods and/or services. Should there be an inconsistency between the terms of this Agreement and the Incorporated Contract, then the terms of the Incorporated Contract shall prevail over this Agreement to the extent of the inconsistency.

This Agreement, together with any Incorporated Contract, if any, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties relating to the Order and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings, oral and written, among the parties regarding the Order.

An Order becomes effective upon written acceptance by duly authorized representatives of the parties. An Order may not be amended except by a change order issued by CSL to the Supplier. By accepting an Order (including a change order) or by supplying any goods and/or services under an Order (including a change order), the Supplier will be deemed to have agreed to be bound by all of the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

PRICE AND PAYMENT

Unless stipulated on the face of the Order to the contrary, the price for goods or services includes all parts, supplies, labour, expenses, disbursements and all other products and/or components required to perform the service or supply the goods. CSL is not liable for packaging, freight, insurance, taxes, duties or other charges of any type, unless otherwise indicated on the face page of the Order. If any payment for fees, commissions services or other amounts paid to Supplier is subject to withholding taxes or any other deductions imposed by law, CSL will withhold such amount in accordance with the law and regulation requirements and will not gross-up any amount paid to Supplier. For greater certainty, CSL shall not be responsible for any additional expenses or disbursements which have not been specifically agreed to in writing by CSL on the face page of the Order.

The Supplier shall send detailed invoices immediately after delivery of the goods and/or completion of the services to the attention of the Accounts Payable Department by email or mail at the addresses set out in the Order or through an electronic platform designated by CSL from time to time.

Unless otherwise provided in the Order, all undisputed invoices for goods and/or services are payable by CSL sixty (60) days after receipt of the invoice, unless otherwise indicated on the face page of the Order.

DELIVERY, TITLE AND RISK OF LOSS

All deliveries shall be made by Supplier by the delivery date and in accordance with the delivery instructions set out in the Order, otherwise CSL may forthwith cancel the Order in whole or part without liability or penalty and without prejudice to any other rights CSL may have. All goods shall remain at the Supplier's risk until delivered to and accepted by CSL, unless otherwise indicated on the face page of the Order.

CSL retains the right to inspect goods provided by Supplier under the Order and may reject any or all goods received from Supplier at any time within five (5) business days of receipt of the goods at CSL's warehouse or on the applicable vessel, whichever is the ultimate destination of the goods. Payment for or use of the goods prior to inspection will not constitute acceptance of the goods. Any signature by CSL on any shipping or receiving documents will not constitute acceptance of the goods but will merely constitute an acknowledgment of receipt of a shipment of goods.

WARRANTY

Purchase of Goods. The Supplier shall supply the goods in full conformity with the specifications, including the price and exact quantity, set out in the Order. The Supplier shall supply goods free and clear of any liens, hypothecs or encumbrances and of good and merchantable quality and workmanship, fit for the purpose for which they are intended and having all the features and specifications described in the Order which include, without limiting the foregoing, the proper style, size and design of the goods ordered under the Order. This warranty is effective during the twelve (12) months period from the date the equipment delivered under the Order is put into service by CSL. In the event that the Supplier repairs or replaces equipment that is no longer covered by the twelve (12) months warranty described above, that repaired or replaced equipment will be subject to an equivalent warranty during the ninety (90) days period from the date of repair or replacement.

Purchase of Services. The Supplier warrants that all services and work (i) shall be performed in accordance with the requirements, plans, designs and specifications set out under the Order and/or as agreed in writing pursuant to the Order, (ii) shall be performed in accordance with the highest standards and in a workmanlike manner and (iii) shall be free of all defects whether they be due to faulty design, materials or workmanship. This warranty is effective during the ninety

(90) days period from the date of completion of the services.

All goods and services provided under an Order shall be supplied and performed, as applicable, and shall comply with, all applicable laws, rules and regulations.

The Supplier hereby waives any rights to charge CSL's property with any liens, hypothecs, encumbrances or other charges. The Supplier shall, at its sole cost and expense, obtain from all its subcontractors waivers and releases of all liens, hypothecs, encumbrances or other charges that may encumber the goods delivered under the Order or any other property of CSL.

CSL may cancel the Order and return the goods or reject the services at the Supplier's expense if they do not meet the requirements of the warranties set out in this paragraph, without any liability or penalty whatsoever and without prejudice to any other rights CSL may have. In the event of a breach of these warranties, the Supplier, at its expense and at CSL's option, shall either (i) remedy, repair and/or replace as required all defective materials and workmanship and damage or (ii) pay to CSL the actual costs to CSL of carrying out such remedial work, repairs or replacements.

PARTICULAR PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO SERVICES

The Supplier shall ensure that it and its work force observe all applicable laws, regulations, rules, ordinances, directives and codes including the CSL safety policies which may be provided upon request and applicable worker's compensation legislation. If Supplier is providing services to a CSL entity located in Canada, the Supplier is solely responsible for the remittance of the amounts it may be required to pay to the various government departments and agencies, in particular the provincial and federal departments of revenue, the Commission des normes, de l'équité, de la santé et de la sécurité du travail (CNESST), the Workplace Safety & Insurance Board (WSIB) and shall provide confirmation that they are in goodstanding with the CNESST and the WSIB, where applicable by providing either a Certificate of Conformity from the CNESST or Clearance Certificate from the WSIB.

All work is to be carried out by qualified tradesmen, professionals or other persons in accordance with applicable regulatory bodies and classification society's requirements. Such work must be to CSL's satisfaction and must meet or exceed best industry standards.

Any additional work beyond that specified, or any other extra work whatever to be carried out by the Supplier, must be specifically ordered by authorized personnel of CSL under an Order, at prices to be mutually agreed on.

Should any of the vessel's machinery, equipment or fittings be used, with CSL's prior consent, by the Supplier for any purpose whatsoever, the Supplier shall, at its expense, make good any damage resulting from such use, and shall conduct such use at its own risk.

CSL shall have the right to inspect the progress of the work at any reasonable time at its expense. Should CSL not be satisfied with the progress of the work, it shall so advise the Supplier in writing and the Supplier shall then have five (5) business days to remedy the deficiency set out in CSL's notice. In the event the Supplier fails to remedy such deficiency within the prescribed time, CSL may elect to terminate the Order and pay to the Supplier all amounts owing to it for the work completed up to the date of termination less any costs incurred by CSL in order to remedy the Supplier's default.

TERMINATION

In addition to its other remedies available to it under this Agreement and under applicable law, CSL may terminate this Agreement, in whole or in part, without cause, by giving at least five (5) days' written notice to the Supplier. In the event CSL elects to so terminate the Order, CSL shall pay to the Supplier all amounts owing to it for the services completed and/or goods delivered and, in each case, accepted up to the date of termination.

In the event that (i) the Supplier becomes insolvent or bankrupt; (ii) the Supplier ceases to carry on business in the normal course; (iii) a receiver, manager or liquidator is appointed in respect of the whole or any part of the affairs or assets of the Supplier; (iv) the Supplier otherwise commences or is the subject of proceedings under any law in relation to its insolvency or bankruptcy or (v) the Supplier commits a breach of any of its obligations hereunder, CSL may, without prejudice to any other rights it may have, immediately terminate this Agreement upon written notice of termination to the Supplier.

Upon termination or completion of an Order, all working papers, materials, work in progress and data in whatever mode of storage in respect of which payment or reimbursement is made under this Order shall pass to CSL and the Supplier shall deliver such items to CSL, upon request, and in a form acceptable to CSL.
